MINISTERS' RECORDSBYLAWS

All ministers shall keep a record of their work, number of sermons preached, and personal finances on forms provided by the conference.

Names of all deceased ministers shall be listed in the Conference Minutes.

A complete roster of local churches with complete addresses, including rural routes, highway numbers, zip codes, and telephone numbers be included in the minutes. (These are listed by districts.)

Each church shall mail quarterly reports to the conference office within ten (10) days after the end of each quarter; namely: March 31, June 30, and September 30. The annual report ending December 31 shall be in the office by January 10.

Voting for Pastor

Each church voting for pastor shall use official ballots approved by the General Conference. The vote shall be taken on the Fourth (4th) Sunday in May preceding the Quadrennial Conference. All absentee ballots shall be sealed and signed by the eligible voter on the outside of the envelope. Results of the voting shall be forwarded to the superintendent within twenty-four (24) hours.

If a pastor indicates to his church that he desires to serve another term, but then later decides otherwise and requests to be moved, this request must be in writing and a copy presented to the Stationing Committee for study before the request shall be granted.

Ministers shall be informed of their appointment during consultation with the Stationing Committee, and if afterwards a re-adjustment has to be made, the committee shall grant the minister another consultation.

If a church votes for a pastor and the church delegate or delegates should go before the committee and petition it contrary to the vote of the church, such petition or request must be in writing and a copy filed with the committee.

No person other than duly elected delegates shall consult with the Stationing Committee concerning pastoral assignments unless the pastor and delegates involved are invited to attend the meeting.

Work of the Stationing Committee

The Stationing Committee shall deliberate on matters related to ministerial assignments and shall have ample time for interviews with lay delegates and ministers before reaching a final decision.

The Nominating Committee shall consider nominating those who have not served on the committee. A person shall serve once within a period of six years.

The Stationing Committee Report shall be read on Sunday afternoon following the World Missions Service, and there shall be no night service.

Ministerial Candidates for License and Ordination

Application for admission into the conference shall be made to the Superintendent.

All candidates for the ministry shall have been a member of a local Pentecostal Holiness Church a minimum of six (6) months before the convening of the conference. This requirement shall not apply to ministers transferring from another conference.

All candidates shall satisfy the Committee on Examination that they have met the requirements of the General Conference Manual for license and ordination.

The Committee on Examination shall not consider the application of any person for admission into the conference for license or transfer from other denominations unless such a person is sponsored by three Pentecostal Holiness Ministers who vouch for the character of the applicant. (Ordained ministers coming from other denominations shall not be required to take the written examination.)

The Committee on Examination shall examine the credit rating of all candidates carefully.

All candidates for license and ordination shall have completed courses offered at Holmes Theological Seminary, Southwestern Bible College, Emmanuel College, or Emmanuel College School of Christian Ministries as students in residence or by correspondence, or a course of study approved by the General Conference.

The Committee on Examination, comprised of eight members, shall continue to function in examining ministerial candidates. Two members shall be elected at each annual session to serve for four years on a rotating basis.

Deeds

No property shall be accepted in the conference with a revertible clause in the deed.

Local Church Official Boards

The local church shall refrain from electing to the official board more than one member of an immediate family in its congregation, except in cases where it is unavoidable.

Each member of the local church shall be required to furnish evidence that he or she pays tithes into the church where he or she may serve.

Resolutions

All resolutions offered from the floor of the conference shall bear at least five (5) signatures, and not more than the number constituting the Resolutions Committee membership.

Finances—Minister and Church

In pastoral changes, the local church shall be responsible for the moving of the incoming pastor.

Each church shall support the conference financial system by sending monthly ten percent (10%) of its income from regular tithes and offerings to the conference treasury. In case of failure to comply with this regulation the Superintendent may ask for an explanation for delay in payment.

The conference shall support the General Program, and funds raised for World Missions, Children's Home, Education, and other designated agencies are to be sent to the conference treasury monthly. Churches complying with this regulation may be permitted to earmark special offerings.

All members of the conference shall pay one hundred percent (100%) tithes into the conference. Failure to comply with this regulation shall subject one to excommunication from the conference.

In addition to the tithe, all active (those not superannuated) members shall pay one percent (1%) of their net income, or one hundred dollars ($100.00) whichever is more, monthly for superannuation. Failure to do this forfeits one from drawing superannuation benefits. Ministerial students continue to pay fifty dollars ($50.00) while in school.

All tithes are to be paid on or before the tenth (10th) of each month. Names of ministers who fail to comply, at the discretion of the Superintendent, may be published in the Evangel, or may be notified by letter every third month.

The conference year shall end December 31; therefore, all tithes of ministers and churches must be paid by January 10th. Monthly written reports from ministers and churches must be sent to the conference office by the 10th of the month.

In view of the high cost of living and maintaining adequate transportation for the minister, and in view of the feeling that an adequately supported minister can and will do a better job; then it becomes mandatory that:

1. In keeping with the General Conference policy concerning housing and utilities, the conference board will consider where necessary housing allowance and utilities (electricity, fuel, water, phone) for officials, and each local church consider the same for its pastor. These allowances shall be separate and apart from the salary of ministers and officials.

2. Full-time evangelists shall have the privilege of deducting rent from their evangelistic compensation. (Full-time means the minister does not customarily resort to non-ministerial employment.)

3. The church shall review the pastor's salary semiannually and grant increases in salary in keeping with diligence, merit, service of a pastor, and in growth of the church for which he is responsible.

4. Churches shall pay the pastor's salary the Sunday during the conference session.

5. A gift equal to the Social Security Tax paid by the pastor be made to him by the church. (Note: Churches are now required to pay the pastor's Social Security Tax by the Manual.)

6. The Superintendent shall confer with the church boards in the matter of pastoral support where the need is apparent.

7. Churches are encouraged to pay the insurance premiums for the pastor. (Conference Treasurer to pay the premiums for the Superintendent and the Christian Education Fund pay the premiums for the Christian Education Director.)

In keeping with the General Conference Minutes of 1977 and 1981, the Conference Board shall review and adjust the salary of the Superintendent and other personnel employed by the conference. This shall be done semiannually.

The rate of twenty-four cents ($.24) per mile shall be paid for all official travel. (This is contingent upon 1982 Finance Committee Report, Paragraph 11e and subject to adjustment according to rate adopted by GBA, GEB, or General Conference.)

The Conference Treasurer shall be authorized to pay the moving expenses of a retiring minister.

8. All salaries and benefits, including mileage, received by conference personnel shall be included in the treasurer's report.

Vacations

The Conference Superintendent shall be given a two weeks' vacation with pay each year. He shall be permitted to conduct two revival campaigns outside the Conference boundaries at his discretion, and any compensation for such services shall not apply on his salary.

A full-time minister shall be granted a two weeks' vacation each year and shall be permitted to conduct not more than 3 one week revivals or their equivalent each year.

Local Church—Ministerial Relations

All evangelistic campaigns, prayer meetings, or religious exercises conducted by members within a radius of one mile of a local church shall be under the supervision of the local pastor.

Pastors shall refrain from making frequent visits to former pastorates to the extent that it may cause confusion and create a lack of cooperation of the church with the current pastor.

The chairman of the ushers in each local church must be a member of the Pentecostal Holiness Church. He shall be appointed by the local church board on the basis of his exemplary Christian dedication, appropriate personality, and ability.

No pastor or member of a local church shall engage in any effort to solicit absentee votes or to campaign for or against the incumbent pastor. Superannuated ministers and local evangelists shall refrain from any activity which will have the effect of retarding the growth and progress of the local church which may result in interference with the program of the present pastor.

Each minister when moving from a church shall leave a complete file of members with addresses and occupation for the succeeding pastor.

Camp Meeting and Conference Entertainment

All auxiliary organizations of the Pentecostal Holiness Church using the North Carolina Conference facilities at Falcon shall be responsible for any and all breakage of and damage to said facilities. They are further required to pay for gas and electricity used in their conventions and authorized meetings.

Death of a Minister

In the event of the death of one of our ministers, the Superintendent's office shall contact the District Conference Secretaries and they in turn shall notify the ministers of the district.

Conference Planning

The Conference Board shall be responsible for the selection of the Camp Meeting Speakers.

The Conference Board shall set the dates and select the speakers for the Christian Worker's Institute.

The Conference Board and Auxiliary Department Leaders shall serve as a Planning Committee for all Promotional and Quadrennial Conferences.

The Conference and Camp Meeting shall be separated and conducted at times independent of each other during the year.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT—1982

Mr. Chairman and Conference Members:

It is my happy privilege to greet you again in the name of our wonderful Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Again, I can report that my experience with the Lord is up to date. I am in harmony with the Pentecostal Holiness Church doctrines, General Rules, and Bible-founded standards. As I continue in this church and study God's Word, I find the way grows sweeter and my church more meaningful and needed than ever before. I am highly honored to serve this conference and General Church in an elected position, and daily strive to live and represent both to the best of my ability.

This year, 1982, has been a very busy year for me. Since it was our Quadrennial Conference year, there were many details to plan and work to get everything in order. I have conducted two rounds of District Conference, the Falcon and Piney Grove Camp Meetings, served as Editor of the Evangel, Chairman of Ministerial Church and Extension Loan Fund, Superannuation and Conference Board, all auxiliary boards and committees. I have traveled across the conference for various occasions: ground breakings, church dedications, revivals, homecomings, note burnings, funerals, met with pastors, church boards, and church bodies, and wherever I was called for service.

May I express to this conference my appreciation for electing me again to serve as your Conference Superintendent for another four years. You also gave me a most efficient Conference Board to labor with. Each member has served well and I appreciate them very much. To the Christian Education Director, Evangelism Director, Woman's Auxiliary President, and their boards, I say thank you—it has been a joy to serve with you.

As a member of the General Executive Board, it has been my privilege to serve with Bishop Leon Stewart and other members of the board. I serve as Chairman of Church Institutions Board and Representative of the Eastern Zone. I have attended all regular Executive Board Meetings, General Board of Administration meetings, and wherever I was called on to serve. In each meeting, I have endeavored to represent my church, conference, and fellow ministers to the best of my ability.

The year 1982 has been a good year. There has been and presently is a good revival spirit in our conference. Even though there are many strange and unscriptural doctrines being taught by some, there are those who are turning back to the Gospel of Holiness and true Pentecost. This church was founded on the doctrine of Holiness. It was good then and remains the same today. It still remains the secret to heaven's entrance; for without Holiness no man shall see God. —Hebrews 12:14. I trust that this conference and our denomination will remember where we started from and without a solid foundation on which to build, where we could have been; may we never forget it.

THE STATE OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

December 31, 1982

The state of the North Carolina Conference for the year 1982 is excellent. May I reflect upon the year by stating that there are many activities in a conference of this size during the year. There are camp meetings, conferences, youth camps, Evangelism rallies and varied meetings in the conference along with the general work that our churches faithfully support. It takes time, prayer, hard work, and faith to continue to make gains year after year. But our pastors, ministers, and local churches are to be commended for your stewardship, faithfulness and loyalty to the overall church programs. After all is said and done, after all General and Conference programs list their growth or achievements, there is one group responsible for our continued growth and that is the local church. The local church is the conference and foundation for our great General Outreach. To the local pastor and church, I say thank you for being that link in the chain that makes a strong church.

Again this year, we have shown an increase in church membership. We closed the year 1981 with 15,841 and this year with 16,285. An increase of 444. This is not what we would like to have done, but we have gone forward. It is always difficult to have an accurate account of souls saved, sanctified, baptized with the Holy Ghost and other definite experiences around our altars. But we do show an increase.

Even though we are still in a recession in this area and nation, God's people have gone the extra mile and given more to all endeavors than any previous year. Many of our churches pay across the board to both Conference and General, and then give sacrificially to world missions, education, benevolence and other church needs. This speaks of a healthy, dedicated church. I trust each church will catch the vision of what God will do if all will cooperate and pay their part. Thank God for all the increase, and thank you for obeying Him. We are facing a New Year, our commission is to win the lost. Let us each ask the Lord: "What would you have of me in 1983?" And when He answers, do it.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

For half of this conference year, Reverend Bobby Collins served as Christian Education Director. Completing eight years in June, when he was elected as Conference Treasurer. In June, Reverend Gary Strickland was elected as Christian Education Director. It has been a real joy to have served with Brother Collins. He led our conference in this department to great heights of achievements. He is a very dedicated conference man.

Reverend Gary Strickland was elected in God's will I believe. His abilities and interest in God's kingdom and Christian Education are great. With Brother Strickland coming into this office, we never lost step. Everything continued beautifully and great strides are being made in every phase of this department. It has been a joy to serve with him and the most efficient Christian Education Board.

EVANGELISM DEPARTMENT

In our Quadrennial Conference in June, Reverend L. B. Collins was elected to serve for another four years as Evangelism Director. Again, this department is off to a good start. Evangelism rallies, workshops, and a continued effort is being made to strengthen the weak and smaller churches and organize churches when profitable and the door opens. Through Brother Collins and the Evangelism Board, great stress is ever before us for the need of revival. For revival means souls saved, and church growth. Thanks, Brother Collins, for a job well done.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Woman's Auxiliary is always consistent in their labors. Each year they set goals and usually meet them or exceed them. This is the case for the Harvest Train, Feast of Ingathering, Education and local projects. Through the years, this arm of the church has played and continues to play a vital part in our conference and church. Each church is a much nicer church, better equipped and more inviting because of the hand of the Auxiliary.

To Mrs. Faye Leggett, President, and the Conference Auxiliary Board, and each local church Auxiliary, may I say thanks for a job well done.

OTHER AREAS OF PROGRESS

Each department has already been mentioned and increase noted; however, we have our Mission Director, Reverend T. E. Long and our Mission Committee who continue to keep our world mission outreach before us. We continue to make increase in our giving to all departments, as well as trying to keep the home base strong enough to have a solid foundation from which to launch out to others.

If I had a word for the New Year, 1983, it would be: Let us never be ashamed of our heritage, our foundation, our founding fathers. But let us live up to the standard of Bible Holiness. "Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned into fables. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry."—II Timothy 4:2-5.

GRATITUDE TO GOD

To accomplish His work, we know that God uses human instrumentality. He gives us His commission to build His church. We endeavor to do our best and are very elated when progress is made through the power and leadership of God. "To Him we give our gratitude and praise."

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

- We, your Committee on Resolutions, submit the following:
1. The Stationing Committee Report be read at close of Friday afternoon business session.
 2. Each church shall mail quarterly reports to the Conference within ten days after the end of each quarter, namely: March 31, June 30, September 30. The annual report for the year ending December 31 shall be in the office by January 10.
 3. The 1983-1986 camp meetings shall begin the third Sunday in July and continue through the fourth Sunday in July.
 4. The Conference Board shall be responsible for the selection of camp meeting speakers.
 5. That the 1986 Quadrennial Conference Nominating Committee consists of nine (9) men (one from each district). The committee shall be elected at the last District Fellowship prior to the 1986 Quadrennial Conference. That these committees nominated shall consist of ten persons; five (5) ministers and five (5) laity.
 6. That the Conference Board shall appoint a Committee on Division of Labor to review and make pastoral appointments at the Quadrennial Conference.
 7. Where a pastor and local church are satisfied and there are evidences of progress and growth that a vote shall not be necessary.
 - a. When as a result of his personal conviction and analysis, a pastor feels that his work is through at a church, after consultation with his superintendent, he shall let his church know of his decision to resign. The superintendent then shall take an expression from the church and the conference board shall appoint a pastor.
 - b. When two-thirds of the local church board feel that an expression should be made from the local church relative to the pastor's continuance during the quadrennium, they shall, in a meeting of the church board that is chaired by the pastor, call for a meeting with the conference superintendent who will determine if an expression is needed. When a vote is taken, if the pastor receives a two-thirds majority vote, the conference board may consider this vote sufficient for him to remain as pastor, providing he expresses a desire to remain.

- c. In the event of continuing unrest or decline in a local church, the conference board shall investigate and may call for a vote of the church as to the feasibility of the pastor's remaining. When a pastor receives a two-thirds majority to remain, he may do so at his discretion.

9. That the local church board shall refer to and adhere to the General Minutes (Page 60, Section A) concerning certification and eligibility to vote and serve as a delegate.

10. To eliminate any confusion pertaining to any salaries for the pastors the week of conference and to insure that all pastors are paid in the event of change, we recommend that the church pay the pastor's salary through the conference week.

11. In view of the fact that we all need to be more prepared to meet the growing need of a complex society, we recommend that the Conference Board, in planning Christian Workers Institute, plan a session of family life seminars led by competent counselors in the field of marriage and divorce and social problems.

12. During the Quadrennium, the Conference Board meet once per year in each area. The purpose is for fellowship and exchanging ideas between pastors and board members. That a time of worship be from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and a fellowship lunch to follow.

13. Churches are to be responsible, as far as possible, in paying their Pastor's Conference Insurance (Hospital & Life), Social Security, Retirement (1% N.C. Conference and 6% General Annuity or a Personal I.R.A.).

15. That all Committee Reports be mimeographed, including the proposed Budget and be presented to all ministers and delegates at the time of registration.

16. That each church be responsible to provide an expense-paid trip for their pastor to the General Conference. (The General Conference rules already provide that churches pay the delegate's fare.)

17. Ministers and delegates shall take these Committee Reports home with them and present them to the Church Board to use at their first meeting following this Conference.

18. In the event of death of one of our ministers, the Superintendent's office shall contact the district Secretaries, and they in turn will notify the ministers of the District.

19. An Editing Committee, comprised of the Conference Superintendent and Secretary, and the Chairmen of all the 1982 Quadrennial Conference Committees, review all Committee Reports and edit them to provide consistent structure and form.

20. That the Bylaws of the Conference be carried over into the next Quadrennium and that everyone study them carefully.

21. That the Conference Board and Auxiliary Leaders serve as a Planning Committee for all Promotional and Quadrennial Conferences.

22. That the 1983-1986 W.A. and C.E. Conventions be held on Monday and Tuesday of the week of conference. This to be coordinated with the conference schedule.

24. That a biography of each member of the conference be submitted to the conference office to be retained in each member's personal file; blanks for such to be furnished by the conference to each member.

25. When the vote for pastor is taken, and the pastor receives a two-thirds majority vote or more, the vote shall be reported to the church and conference as a favorable vote; those receiving less than a two-thirds majority vote shall be reported as receiving a majority vote; those receiving less than a majority vote shall be reported as an unfavorable vote.

26. That the Conference and Camp Meeting be separated and conducted at times independent of each other during the year. (This to be inserted in the Bylaws.)

REPORT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

"But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them; and that from a child thou hast known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness; that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works"—II Timothy 3:14-17.

WORLD MISSIONS COMMITTEE

The Divine Mandate given by Christ, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature," reminds us of the historic missions of the church and the reason for its existence. The task is yet unfinished. The Word declares this Gospel of the kingdom must be published among all nations, then shall the end come. Millions of lost souls and the ever imminent return of Christ demand that we display extraordinary vision, dedication, and sacrifice in the performance of our duties.

In view of these urgent circumstances, we, your Committee on World Missions, submit the following recommendations:

1. That a member of the Conference Board be assigned as Conference Missions Director at the first meeting of the Conference Official Board following this conference.

- a. That a pastor who has shown through participation and promotion of World Missions in his church be appointed as Dist. Director of Missions for each district at the first Conference Official Board meeting following this conference. The Con-Board also appoint two lay persons to serve with these nine men who along with the Superintendent, Conference Director of Missions, a member of the Conference W.A. Board and a member of the C.E. Board will comprise the Conference Missions Committee.

2. That the Conference Missions Committee encourage and strive to arrange in each local church missions rallies and/or conventions.

3. The Conference Missions Committee shall meet as often as necessary to promote and correlate the Conference and General Program for Missions.

4. That each local church strive to observe an Annual Missions Emphasis.

a. Where and when possible, the Conference and District Directors be included in the program.

b. If at all possible, missionaries be included in these Annual Emphasis. Special attention should be given to missionaries' salary and support during the local emphasis. Missionaries supported by local churches should be invited to participate in conventions and other services when they are on furlough.

5. The Conference Missions Director either through his office or the General World Missions Dept. inform the local churches of the materials available for promotional activities on the local level.

6. All offerings received at conference supported rallies on the district or conference level be forwarded to the Conference Treasurer, and all expenses for conference personnel, conference and district directors of missions, are to be paid by the conference.

7. The conference is to pay the expenses of the Conference Missions Director to attend the Annual Conference Missions Directors' meeting at General Headquarters.

8. Each church is encouraged to use "Faith Commitment Cards" on the Annual Day of Commitment. This World Missions Fund shall be used to support the salaries of missionaries, the Annual Emphasis Offering received during Camp Meeting, and projects.

9. Although we recognize the tremendous strain that many of our churches may be in, we recommend that special services for returned and prospective missionaries be conducted and that love offerings be given where possible.

10. We recommend that the Annual World Missions Emphasis for the Falcon Camp Meeting be continued and that the churches give $3.00 per member. The Conference Missions Committee set a goal for the conference and help to promote through the Evangel, newsletters, etc. this offering.

a. We urge the local Missions Committee begin working early in the year to raise this offering.

b. Each church, through one of its auxiliaries, consider having an Annual Missions Day at which time a special project could be held to raise money for missions. (An auction sale, bake sale, yard sale, car wash, a barbecue, etc., could create a lot of interest and raise additional funds for missions.)

11. With heartfelt gratitude we express our appreciation to the churches and pastors for their involvement in the outreach of the World Missions Program of our conference in the past and present. We believe, with your continued prayerful support, that the coming quadrennium will be the most effective World Missions Ministry we have ever experienced.

12. That we go on record requesting that the 1983 General C.E. Convention be requested that the General C.E. Dept. have only one annual missions emphasis with the money received to be used for TOOLS and Truth on Wheels projects according to the needs as determined by the General C.E. Board; and that our C.E. Director present this resolution to the appropriate committee for the 1983 Gen. C.E. Conference.

13. That during the next quadrennium each local pastor and official board shall extend an invitation to the District Director of Missions to meet with them for the purpose of planning and promotion of missions on the local level.

14. Although our present emphasis service has served us well, we recommend that the incoming Conference Missions Committee formulate a new and different format for future annual emphases: (For instance, dramas, themes, booths, slides, etc.)

15. In lieu of flowers at the death of our friends and/or loved ones, we request consideration be given to a memorial gift to missions in memory of the deceased. Also, we request that the Conference Director of Missions present this paragraph to the World Missions Department for the possible development of promotional materials for this type of funds.

16. Local Church Missions Programs—Each local church shall have a missions director who is to be appointed by the pastor and church board and his duties shall be:

- a. To assist the pastor in promoting missions in the church, endeavoring to coordinate the missions program into the total program of the local church.
- b. To coordinate all missions giving with the pastor and the local church program.
- c. To keep a supply of missions promotional materials for distribution to members and visitors. He shall endeavor to get the WORLDORAMA into each member's home.
- d. To set a particular Sunday in each month to receive the World Missions offering.
- e. To assist the pastor and the Conference Missions Board in raising money for missionary support, projects and the World Evangelism Emphasis.

Signed: Vernon Clark, Chairman; Norman Hood, T. H. Godwin, George Terry, Thad White, W. M. Cordon, Willis Pearson, John Hedgepeth, Dickie Rook, Melvin Parnell.

EDUCATION AND PUBLICATION

We, your Committee on Education and Publication, offer these recommendations:

1. That the conference conduct a midwinter Christian Worker's Institute annually.

2. That the Christian Worker's Institute be viewed as a tool of Continuing Education and care be taken to assure that the Institute serves this purpose; namely, that the format of the Christian Worker's Institute be designed to include lecture, workshops, and group discussion.

3. That themes be designated for the Christian Worker's Institute and then speakers be invited on the basis of their expertise, whether layman or minister, in that specific line of study.

4. That a Christian Worker's Institute Committee consisting of three (3) ministers and two (2) laymen be elected at this session of conference to serve for the quadrennium to suggest themes.

5. A copy of the Manual, Focus on Doctrine, a one (1) year subscription of the North Carolina Conference Evangel, the Advocate and Helping Hand shall be given to each new member upon reception into the church. These materials are to be provided and paid for by the local church.

6. The Conference Evangel shall be continued as the official publication at a cost set by the Conference Board, with the Superintendent serving as editor and business manager.

7. Each church shall appoint a correspondent to send news of local church interest to the Evangel.

8. Ministers and churches, embracing all departments, are urged to support the Falcon Gospel Bookstore and Advocate Press to the greatest extent in purchasing Sunday School and church literature and supplies.

9. That all ministers continue their monthly reports to the conference office, and that their financial reports be omitted from future conference minutes.

10. The pastor shall promote and maintain within his church the best possible circulation of our conference and church publications.

11. Copies of the Quadrennial Conference Minutes shall be published with each related department paying its pro-rated share of the cost. The number of copies to be printed shall be left to the discretion of the Conference Superintendent and Conference Secretary.

12. That ministers and churches utilize the communications media: radio, television, newspapers, and attractive identifying outdoor signs.

13. That the Conference Director of Evangelism be designated by this conference as Public Relations Director for the North Carolina Conference, and he be responsible to formulate an active and continuing program for advertising the ministries and services of this conference.

14. That the Public Relations Director shall maintain active correspondence with our ministerial students expressing the appreciation and support of our conference for their endeavors.

15. That the Public Relations Director utilize media to advertise conference activities such as Falcon Camp Meeting, Christian Worker's Institute, etc. The conference shall purchase an ad in the Raleigh News and Observer.

16. That a minister be appointed by the Conference Board at its first meeting to serve as the Political Education representative of the North Carolina Conference. That he be responsible to make at least quarterly reports to the members of the conference on political issues that have particular relevance to Christians and to our churches in general. Namely issues that deal with religion, morals, poverty, hunger, etc. This summary report would be included in an appropriate mailing via the Christian Education Department. The funding to be approved by the Conference Board.

17. All candidates for license and ordination shall have completed courses offered at Holmes College of the Bible, Southwestern School of Christian Ministries, Emmanuel College, or Emmanuel College School of Christian Ministries as students in residence or by correspondence, or a course of study approved by the General Conference. (Exemptions by virtue of equivalency courses must comply with General Conference statutes, page 58, paragraph D, numbers 1, 2 and 3).

18. That proper promotion be given Theological Extension Educational Programs from our church colleges. That at regular intervals announcements will be made by mail via the Christian Education Department.

19. That the Conference underwrite Theological Extension Educational courses for the licensed and ordained ministers of the conference by assisting with 1/3 of the cost of the course. This assistance must be applied for by the minister.

20. In light of the dwindling supply of federal aid for education, we recommend that each local church consider matching the Christian Education Department's Scholarship for students attending one of our church schools.

21. That each church contribute a gift subscription of the Evangel to its college students and servicemen. The Evangel shall be made available to superannuated ministers.

22. We strongly encourage our young people to attend our church schools, especially our ministerial students.

Signed: Roland Harrell, Chairman; Paul Brafford, W. A. Shepherd, H. C. Potter, Bobby Forehand, Bethea Moore, Melvin Narron, Wiley Vick, Douglas Herrin, Linda Thomas.

CHILDREN'S HOME COMMITTEE

Knowing the Holy Scriptures read, "Thou art the helper of the fatherless" (Psalm 10:14) giving us a sound basis for the existence of Falcon Children's Home. We, your committee on this institution of the church, urge its continued support by submitting the following:

Respectfully submitted: Raymond Potter, Chairman; J. Doner Lee, Clayton Guthrie, Ralph R. Johnson, W. J. Forehand, James Leggett, Sam L. Whichard.

APPRECIATION COMMITTEE REPORT

June 18, 1982

Jesus is pictured walking in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks, with the seven stars in His right hand. Stars are the angels or messengers or ministers used as messengers to the church and to the world. God has ordained that there should be those anointed by

His Spirit, who beyond all others should be used to proclaim His message. These are the stars. Stars are navigational aids or guides. They have guided many a weary traveler over barren deserts and uncharted trackless oceans and these—whom we honor—have guided many a lost soul to a harbor of rest.

The stars were in His right hand. Those whose names are listed in this report, hold such a place of honor. They have stood in the forefront of the battle. They have proclaimed His Holy Word. Sometimes reviled, sometimes persecuted, sometimes misunderstood, sometimes opposed by those who oppose His Word: But they are never ashamed and never cast down, for they were held in His right hand. You have been faithful. You have not stained the banner of truth. Your light still shines. You have left your imprint on the work of the Lord in your fields of labor. You still hold a place of honor for you are still in His right hand. We pause then in your behalf and offer our sincere appreciation to each of you.

Reverend M. D. McPherson

Rev. M. D. McPherson was born June 3, 1916, in Marshfield, Oregon, (now Coos Bay). He was reared in Oklahoma, the son of a Pentecostal Holiness Minister. He attended Holmes College of the Bible, from October, 1936 through May, 1939.

While there he served as bass singer of the Holmes Quartet. Upon graduation he was recommended by Dr. Paul F. Beacham to serve as the supply pastor of the Gospel Tabernacle of Dunn, N.C. He served for seven months at which time he was reunited with the Holmes Quartet for summer evangelistic work and during that year was licensed to preach in the Eastern Virginia Conference.

In September, 1940, he attended Emmanuel College for one year and while there he sang with the Emmanuel College Quartet. During this time at Emmanuel College, he met Evelyn Reece of Fincastle, Virginia. They were married in September 22, 1941. To this union were born three daughters, Beverly Ann, Brenda Carol, and Lydia Francine.

He was ordained to the ministry in Norfolk, Virginia June 28, 1943 by Bishop Dan T. Muse. He transferred to the North Carolina Conference in August, 1948. He served his conference well for thirty-four years, and his pastorates include the following churches: Benson, Kenly, Bizzell Grove (twice), Bethany (twice), Jacksonville, Greenville First, Westmoreland.

During his second pastorate at Bizzell Grove, a new commodious church building was erected, with Brother McPherson serving as contractor. While pastoring Greenville First, he promoted the program of erecting a beautiful church plant. During his last pastorate at Bethany, he led in the erection of a new church sanctuary, doing a large portion of the work with his own hands.

Our sincere prayer is that God will continue to bless his ministry, and that Brother McPherson will have many continued years of service unto God. The M. D. McPhersons will be living in the Princeton area.

Reverend Roy Ormond Williams

Rev. Roy O. Williams was born in Greenville, N.C., September 11, 1917. In 1938 he was married to the former Kathleen Hardee. God richly blessed their union with five sons, all members of the Pentecostal Holiness Church. Two of the sons are ministers: the Rev. Bobby T. Williams and Rev. Roy Lindsey Williams.

Brother Williams was saved in 1941 and moved to Virginia shortly thereafter. He joined the Pentecostal Church of Christ at Virginia Beach, Virginia and was licensed to preach in the Pentecostal Church of Christ in 1945. In 1947 he received his Ordination at Faith Bible Institute, Ashland, Kentucky.

In 1950 he joined the N. C. Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church as an ordained minister and has contributed 32 years of faithful service to the work of the Lord in this conference.

His pastorates include: Hopewell, Hodges Chapel, Washington, Grimesland and for the last years at Shelmerdine. In all his pastorates he has endeared himself to his people by his preaching of the gospel and his faithful dedicated service. The Williams reside at Route 3, Box 120, Greenville, North Carolina.

Reverend James W. Johnson

Rev. James W. Johnson was born in Johnston County near Middlesex, N.C., October 15, 1916. God, who knew His servant would accept the call to the ministry, gave to him Miss Allene Bizzell (daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. T. M. Bizzell) to be his helpmeet. They were joined together in bonds of Holy Matrimony, October 9, 1940 and she has been a strong supporter of his ministry. God blessed their home with three children, Glenda, Randy and Sherrod.

Brother Johnson was saved in the early forties and carried the call to preach approximately 9 years. He accepted the call to the ministry while under an oxygen tent in Wayne Memorial Hospital, Goldsboro, N.C., in the summer of 1950. He was a successful business man in Smithfield for a number of years, until he finally surrendered his life completely to the full-time ministry. The record shows, he received Mission Workers License October 27, 1951, Local Ministers License August 19, 1952 and Certificate of Ordination, August 22, 1954. He has been a member of the North Carolina Conference for 30 years.

Brother Johnson was instrumental in organizing the Smithfield Church and pastored there for 11 years. It began in a small rented store building; as it grew he was able to purchase a duplex apartment which was converted to a sanctuary. Later this was sold and he was able to purchase the property where the new church building now stands. Other pastorates included Jones Grove, St. John, Clayton, Sharon, Chadbourn, Bethel and his last pastorate, the Tabernacle Church in Goldsboro.

He graduated from high school in 1936 and was not able to attend college. However, he has furthered his ministerial training, with helps from Emmanuel, Southwestern and Holmes. He has served the Conference as a member of the Board of Examiners and Board of Evangelism. As District Director of World Missions, District Evangelism Unit Secretary, District Conference Secretary, District Status and Evangelism Committee and on the Division of Labor.

Bro. Johnson states, "There were many highlights in my ministry, but the most rewarding was to see the lost accept Jesus and years later find them still serving Him. The ministry has not been easy, but it has been rewarding and God has abundantly blessed. I am retiring from the pastorate but not from preaching the gospel; there is still that same call and burning desire in my life."

The Johnsons will reside in their home in Smithfield.

Reverend Mrs. Margaret Russell

Rev. Mrs. Margaret Russell was born and reared in Raleigh, N.C., and it was there where she met and married Joe L. Russell. They moved to Fayetteville, N.C. where her husband opened an automotive repair business. Soon after moving to Fayetteville they attended a city-wide evangelistic campaign conducted by a Rev. Wade House, where they both were converted, and joined the First Baptist Church. It was here that they met Carl and Lila Isaac who had received the Pentecostal experience and through the Isaacs' prayers and guidance, they accepted Pentecost.

Brother Russell, who felt a call to the ministry, realized the need for preparation, approached the pastor who was instrumental in getting him enrolled at Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, Ill. It was at this time that God dealt with Sister Russell and her call became as definite as that of her husband. After Brother Russell completed his studies, they returned to Fayetteville, N.C. and joined the Person Street Pentecostal Holiness Church, where Rev. Eddie Morris was pastor. They purchased a large tent and entered the evangelistic ministry for several years. In 1940, Brother Russell joined the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church and was assigned Elizabethtown and Boardman. They continued their evangelistic efforts and as a result the Peniel Church was founded in 1941 and they assumed the duties of pastor and assistant pastor. Sister Russell joined the conference in 1950 and served as assistant to her husband at Mt. Olive, Red Springs, New Bern, Williamston and Rocky Mount. She also served as assistant at the Tabernacle Church in Goldsboro until her husband's death in 1969. She then assumed the full responsibility as pastor for more than a year to complete the assignment.

In 1970, she was assigned as pastor of the Pikes Crossroad Church and served for 8 years. During this time God blessed the efforts; the membership grew. A commodious church sanctuary and a new Education Building were completed and paid for. Also a parsonage was begun and almost completed before her term expired.

In addition to all her pastoral duties she has been very active in the Woman's Auxiliary, both on the Conference and General level. She has served in many official capacities in the N. C. Conference and for the past several years has been the W.A. Conference Secretary & Treasurer. She has been affiliated with the Woman's Auxiliary on a General level in some capacity from 1957 to 1977, having served on the General Board from 1969-1977, either as Vice-President, Board Member and Regional Director.

Her duties have included service as Director of the Eastern Educational Zone from 1957-1969, where she presided over many conventions, conducted many workshops and numerous speaking engagements. She promoted Ministers' Wives' Fellowship, Sharing Sister Program and Feast of Ingathering, introducing bus trips to church schools to promote this work. She wrote W.A. programs published in the Helping Hand for 8 years. She wrote the first study courses published in the Helping Hand on "Church Discipline" and "Stewardship." She introduced the idea of Director of Missions, Education, W.A. Day, and designed the Woman's Auxiliary Emblem, including the motto that is still being used. Also she served as a member of Falcon Children's Home Board for two years and in her promotional efforts for Harvest Train, initiated the Gold Bond Stamp Drive that purchased a 38 passenger bus and a walk-in freezer for the home. She is known not only in the N. C. Conference for her work in the Woman's Auxiliary, but the name of Margaret Russell is known throughout the Pentecostal Holiness Church. She is the mother of four daughters, Peggy, Becky, Joyce and Susan, and one son, Joe, Jr. who follows in his father's and mother's steps in the ministry.

Sister Russell, you were honored by the Woman's Auxiliary in their convention, but the N. C. Conference also salutes you for your labor of love for the Lord. You have fulfilled your responsibilities with dignity, grace and charm and we salute you.

Rev. Ralph Royal Johnson

Rev. Ralph R. Johnson was born January 4, 1912 in Goldsboro, N.C., the son of Willie E. and Laura Edwards Johnson. Later the family moved from Goldsboro to the Kinston area and began attending the original Kinston Pentecostal Holiness Church on Tower Hill Road. It was here that Brother Johnson began to learn and know of the moving of God's Spirit.

It was after the family had moved back to Goldsboro in 1927 that God began to deal with Brother Johnson's heart in a more definite way. In a revival conducted by Rev. Jerome Hodges a year later, on a January night in 1928 Ralph Royal Johnson's name was written in the Lamb's Book of Life. Throughout the next year God's love was deepened in his life and in the Spring of 1928 he was sanctified and the following summer the blessed "Paraclete" from on high came to reside in his life.

Immediately his many talents were recognized as he was asked to teach a Sunday School Class and served as local church Youth President. In 1929 at the age of 17 he entered Holmes Bible and Missionary Institute, Greenville, S.C., and graduated in 1932.

Brother Johnson was granted license to preach in the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church on October 24, 1932 at the annual session in Falcon, N.C. His first pastorate was the Pink Hill Church (now Albritton). On October 10, 1933 in the home of Rev. Jerome Hodges in Goldsboro, Miss Annie Miller Lancaster became the bride of Rev. Ralph R. Johnson, and took her place by his side in the work of the ministry. Out of this union were born two children, David and Carolyn.

In 1934 in the Goldsboro Church just a few feet from where God had saved him, he was ordained by Bishop Joseph H. King. Forced by the Great Depression to work to support his family, he entered the electrical contracting business and continued until 1946. His pastoral assignments began with Pink Hill. Next came Calypso, Manley Grove, St. John, Clayton, Bizzell Grove, Pikes Cross Roads, Rocky Mount, Shiloh, Benson and Falcon (now Culbreth Memorial). In 1946 Brother Johnson was elected treasurer of the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, and was also assigned the Greenville First Church. Further pastorates include Wilmington First, Whiteville, Clinton, Belfast, Whitley and Westmoreland Church in Wilson.

In 1974 Brother Johnson was relieved of pastoral duties and placed at the conference headquarters as conference treasurer on a full-time basis. Even then he served as supply pastor on many occasions and served as interim pastor for the newly organized Cary Church. In March 1, 1972 his wife of 41 years was taken to heaven. God said, "It is not good for man to be alone" so on September 14, 1975 God graciously smiled on him and gave him Miss B. Gladys Barnes for his wife, who has proved to be a gracious complement to his ministry.

Brother Johnson, this completes 50 years as a minister in the N.C. Conference and 36 years as an elected official, having served as Conference Treasurer continuously since 1946. He is probably the dean of elected officials in the Pentecostal Holiness Church.

He was elected as delegate to the General Conference in 1949 and has served as a delegate to every General Conference since. Also serving on many committees as member and chairman. His pastoral labors were fruitful and hold many precious memories. While pastor at Westmoreland he built a new Education Building, doing most of the work with his own hands; but he is known best as the Treasurer—the man who holds the money for the N. C. Conference. In all these years as an official, there has never been the slightest hint against his character or his integrity. He is punctual, meticulous, logical, analytical, conservative and scrupulously honest. He guards the Lord's treasury well and counts his task a sacred trust. Brother Johnson, we appreciate your labor for the Lord and your unblemished example for us to follow.

Thus, Ralph R. Johnson, Margaret Russell, Roy O. Williams, M. D. McPherson, and James W. Johnson, we have read your record as we have compiled it and like Job of old, I would that these words were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock forever; but rest assured, like Job, your record is on high.

You have reached a milestone today. You have set an example; you have given us courage. We, the N. C. Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, salute you. We honor you. We have extolled your accomplishment to the best of our ability, but He who loves you best, honors you most, for He whispers, fear not, you are still in my right hand. We say then with the Apostle in the Philippian letter, chapter 1:3-5, "I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy, for your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now."

Rev. Mrs. Daisy Grace Jones Morris

Rev. Mrs. Daisy Grace Jones Morris is one of the great women of the Pentecostal Holiness Church. Like Dorcas in the New Testament, her life and influence is typical of those who are full of good works and almsdeeds, which she has done. Sister Morris was a native of the state of Georgia and the eldest daughter in a family of eight children. She became associated with the church at the age of 15 years. Under the influence of the congregation of the Newnan, Georgia Pentecostal Holiness Church, who befriended her family, she learned of the deeper experiences and was sanctified and baptized with the Holy Ghost in the same service in October, 1935.

An eventual launch by faith led her to Holmes Bible College, Greenville, South Carolina and during the 5 years she was there, she entered many open doors for Christian service. Her first summer away from Holmes was spent in Falcon, N.C. with the Henry Goff family. And Lee Goff and Daisy Jones formed an evangelistic team and preached their first sermons in Henry Goff's tent. In the fall of that year, she attended Emmanuel College and was licensed to preach in the Georgia Conference, in the Peniel Church in 1937. Bishop King singled her out in the conference and said "God has His hands on this little girl; we are going to pray especially that God will not let anything interfere with her work for Him." Her first pastorate was at the Goldmine Church in Georgia. Her means of transportation to this community was by wagon or whoever was going to the Goldmine community.

In the summer of 1944, Sister Daisy was requested to go to the Wilmington, N.C. P.H. Church and work as a Christian Education Director, the first church to promote this type of ministry. She transferred her license to the N. C. Conference in 1945. In 1947 she was elected as the N. C. Youth Director and began to promote the work of youth. During this time she taught school while initiating youth camp programs for the conference. Also, during this time Vacation Bible School, Bible Sword Drill came into the conference program. The Bible Drill was the forerunner of the Bible Quiz, with local, district, and conference play-offs.

After her marriage to Rev. W. Eddie Morris, Conference Superintendent of the N. C. Conference, she continued to extend her ministries, while raising a family of four children, Ronnie, Susan, Sandra, and Sylvia. She conducted a door to door campaign from which the Airboro Church in Goldsboro, N.C. was organized and when a pastor was assigned the church, she continued to work with the church and pastor. She also served as interim pastor for the Shiloh Church (FD) for several months in 1959.

When Rev. W. Eddie Morris was appointed Superintendent of Falcon Children's Home, she was at his side in promoting every cause of the home. She served as Program Director for the home and for 12 years as secretary and treasurer. During the entire tenure of the Morris' at Falcon Children's Home, she proved to be a valuable assistant to her husband, reaching out into the church, the school and the community.

She has literally gone beyond her strength in serving unselfishly her God, her church, Falcon Children's Home, her husband, her conference and her children without concern for herself. She is deserving of all the honor that can be bestowed upon her. The Pentecostal Holiness Church and the N. C. Conference owe her a debt of gratitude, but only the Lord whom she loves supremely can give her a proper reward.

Respectfully submitted: Clayton Guthrie, Chairman; Jessie Parson, Steve Enloe, Robert Ormond, Lotis Joyner, Lalleon Narron, Cullen Gurganus, R. L. Downing, Rudolph Hayes, Moses King.

MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT

Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world (John 17:24). With Paul we can say: For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain (Phil. 1:21). Those we memorialize today, Rev. Mrs. Elma Ackenback, Rev. A. B. Howard and Rev. Sam Fann, have finished their course and entered the palace of the King. We thank God for their lives and look forward to the glad reunion today.

— MRS ELMA BOYKINS ACKENBACK —
1908-1982

Sister Elma was a member of the Tarboro First Pentecostal Holiness Church. She joined the N. C. Conference in 1943. For many years she served her Church as General Evangelist preaching in many states. In 1962 she married Mr. Charles Ackenback and moved to Columbus, Indiana. Brother Ackenback built a church there and they pastored together for the last ten years.

Sister Ackenback was a very gracious lady, a real prayer warrior and faithful to her Lord and Church until her homegoing.

— AARON B. HOWARD —
1910-1981

Rev. A. B. Howard was the son of one of our pioneer preachers, Rev. J. B. Howard. He was born on October 7, 1910 to carry on the Howard name in the ministry and service to our Lord. Rev. A. B. Howard joined the N. C. Conference in 1943, in which twenty-nine of his active years were spent faithfully preaching the gospel and serving his church. In 1972 he retired because of ill health.

Prior to joining the conference, Brother Howard was already engaged in the work of the Lord. He preached in a tent and different buildings for some time.

Coming in the conference, his first assignment was the Washington Mission. From there he was assigned a circuit in 1944, Abbottsburg, Boardman, and Lake View, S.C. In 1945 his circuit was made up of Abbottsburg, Boardman and Elizabethtown. In 1946 St. Pauls, Sheldene and Hopewell. In 1947, St. Paul and Hodges Chapel. In 1948 he was assigned Sanford where he pastored many years. Between the years 1952 and 1972 his pastorates included Mount Carmel, Lumberton, Ebenezer, Falcon and Rocky Mount.

The remaining years of his life after retirement were spent at his home in Wilmington with his faithful wife and companion in the ministry, Ruth. During this time Brother Howard preached and enjoyed his hobbies. He was a minister and husband, but also the father of four children, Emily, Martha, James and Jean. A comment was made concerning Brother A. B. Howard that says so much in one sentence, "He was a man of good report." Because of his good report, this faithful servant is enjoying the wonderful glories of Heaven he preached about for many years.

— REV. SAMUEL A. FANN —
1889-1982

The Mount Carmel Church was organized on July 10, 1909, and Rev. Sam Fann was a charter member and one of the first deacons.

Brother Fann joined the North Carolina Conference in 1914. For forty-two years he was in the active ministry, pastor, evangelist, Conference Board Member, Assistant Conference Superintendent. He served his Lord and conference and the Church he loved well for over seventy years.

Those of us that knew him recognized him as a man of sterling character, a man with great Christian influence and integrity. We could truthfully say he lived well. He did not just do something and fill a particular position, he was something. "A good man full of the Holy Ghost and faith."

Surviving daughters, Mrs. Nora Gladys Harrington of Fayetteville, Mrs. Susan Margaret Acree of Tarboro; sons, Samuel Kelly Fann and Rev. Ezra B. Fann, both of Goldsboro, Johnny Britton Fann, of Wade; eighteen grandchildren and a number of great-grandchildren.

Signed: S. L. Whichard, Chairman; Horace Rogers, William Weaver, Marvin Rogers, Philip Bland, Tom E. Bizzell, Rodney Knowles, Mickey Baysden, Dewey Waters, M. T. Felton.

N.C. W.A. PRESIDENT'S REPORT

July, 1981 - June, 1982

Personal:

We come to the close of another biennium in W.A. work. These two years have been truly rewarding as well as challenging. I thank God for giving me the opportunity to serve Him through the North Carolina Woman's Auxiliary. You are special ladies, and I praise God for you.

During the year I presented workshops at nine District Fellowship Conferences, attended the Feast of Ingathering for Holmes and Emmanuel, attended the Harvest Train, and participated in the Presidents' Council of the General W.A.

It was a joy to visit a number of Auxiliaries during the year. I was in four of the churches for W.A. Day and I attended some of the local meetings as well as participating in District Rallies.

The Lord has richly blessed us and I am thankful for His blessings upon His work.

Local Auxiliaries:

In visiting the various Auxiliaries, I have found a most precious and uplifting spirit—the sweet Spirit of God. Our ladies all over the conference have done a tremendous job and I appreciate you so much.

Highlights of Conference Year:

The wonderful women of this conference were again "number one" in giving for the Feast of Ingathering. It was such a thrill to see what the North Carolina ladies had done for Emmanuel and Holmes.

What a wonderful sight to see 400 women at our Retreat in March at the Wilson First Church. There was such a feeling of love and unity as the moving of the Spirit was felt in our services.

Five out of nine districts had rallies this year. Each rally was well organized and enjoyed by all. Thank you District Directors.

The G.A. Retreat was the best yet and so many of our girls attended from all over our conference. Mrs. Beverly Barts is doing a fine job as Director of our G.A.'s.

Official W.A. Visits:

A total of 83 visits have been made this year by the W.A. Conference Board. Of these visits, 25 were made by the President, and 58 were made by Board Members, District Directors, and the G.A. Director.

COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERN AND SERVICES

We, your Committee on Christian Social Concern and Services, submit the following:

1. That women work to promote the observance of the Lord's Day as set forth in God's Word.

2. That women join, or otherwise support, community action and organization to help rid the community of obscene matter and that women take a firm and active stand in opposition to the following:

- a. Legalized abortion. (Proverbs 24:11-12)
- b. Legalized marijuana and other harmful drugs.
- c. Equal Rights Amendment.
- d. Homosexuality, and illicit sex.
- e. Evils of pornography.
- f. Liquor by the drink in our local counties.
- g. Any attempt against religious activities by Madelyn O'Hair.
- h. Child abuse and battered wives.

3. We recommend that each local W.A. have a Committee on Christian Social Concern and services and be responsible for obtaining materials and presenting at least one or more programs during the year with emphasis on the social issues listed above in number 2.

4. That we reaffirm our position that we deplore in the strongest possible terms the decision of the U. S. Supreme Court to legalize abortions for no better reason than personal convenience or sociological considerations. We recognize the necessity for the therapeutic abortions to safeguard the health or the life of the mother, or to end pregnancies resulting from rape or incest, but the decision should be made only after there has been medical, psychological, and religious counseling of the most sensitive kind.

5. Realizing that television is having such a strong influence on our families, we strongly urge our women to write to the sponsors and the networks of objectionable programs.

6. That women plan and promote an active program of visitation to help the sick, needy, aged, and those in convalescent homes, jails, correctional institutions, blind centers, and other benevolent institutions. We strongly recommend that our ladies also get involved in local volunteer services such as hospitals, meals on wheels, Red Cross, school volunteer programs, etc.

7. That women teach our young people the Christian concept of sex education in the home, church (in G.A. groups, Lifeliners, etc.). Good books are available in Christian Book Stores.

8. That women observe the World Day of Prayer, the P.F.N.A. Day of Prayer, and the National Shut-in Day, and where possible, each to organize a community prayer group for these days.

9. We suggest the use of the services of the American Bible Society and Advocate Press in securing printed materials for distribution in our churches, homes, and public places such as libraries, bus stations, doctors' offices, etc.

Signed: Dorothy Boyette, Mrs. Massengil, Mrs. Blalock, Mrs. Avery.

MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT

"And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever."—Revelation 22:5.

Our Heavenly Father who doeth all things well called the following women to the land of light where there cometh no night. As long as one is in this life, the CANDLE represents the light shed forth and the influence of this light on others.

These women have gone where greater light shines but this light continues to shine forth as is stated in Revelation 14:13, "And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them."

And give thee peace."

MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS

Motion that Conf. Supt. Lee's contribution to Mrs. Russell be printed in the 1982 minutes. Adopted.

—Mary Bell Johnson, N.C. W.A. Sec.-Treas.

REV. LEE'S CONTRIBUTION TO MRS. RUSSELL

A very special event took place in Raleigh, North Carolina, a number of years ago. The home of Martha and Daniel Honeycutt was blessed with the addition of a beautiful baby daughter. She was named Margaret. Margaret grew up there, met and married a young man by the name of Joe L. Russell.

The Russells moved to Fayetteville, North Carolina where Mr. Russell opened his own Automotive Repair Business. Soon after moving to Fayetteville they attended a city-wide Evangelistic Campaign conducted by a Rev. Wade House. They were both converted, and joined the First Baptist Church. Their paths crossed Carl and Lila Isaac, who had received the Pentecostal experience, and through the Isaacs' prayers and guidance, they accepted Pentecost. It was then that God gave them both to the Pentecostal Holiness Church and Mrs. Russell especially to the work of the Woman's Auxiliary.

All the work that she has contributed can never be given to you today but for a few highlights. In the North Carolina Conference Woman's Auxiliary she has:

—Served in an official capacity since 1948

Board Member

Vice-President

President (twice)

Secretary-Treasurer (since 1965)

—Served on N.C. Project Committee every year since its formulation —Organized numerous Auxiliaries throughout the state while President

—Instituted and conducted first District W.A. Rally at the Person Street Pentecostal Holiness Church

—Wrote and distributed monthly programs to N.C. Auxiliaries (prior to Helping Hand)

—Served as promoter of:

Harvest Train

Feasts of Ingathering

Ministers' Wives' Fellowship

Sharing Sisters Program

Mrs. Russell was affiliated with the General work of the Woman's Auxiliary from 1957-1977. She served on the General Board from 1969-1977 as:

Vice-President

Board Member and

Regional Director

—She served as Director of Eastern Educational Zone from 1957-1969 and in this capacity promoted:

Feasts of Ingathering (Introduced bus trip to schools)

Sharing Sisters Program

Harvest Train (Gold Bond Stamp drive yielded 38 passenger

- bus and walk-in freezer)
- Wrote programs for Helping Hand for eight years
- Wrote first two study courses—(1,000 certificates of completion awarded)
- “Church Discipline”
- “Stewardship”
- Introduced to Board the concept of special directors for Missions, Education, Benevolence, etc.
- Introduced to Board proposal to establish and observe Annual W.A. Day
- Designed the Woman's Auxiliary Emblem
- Proposed the Woman's Auxiliary Motto (Dedicated To Serve)
- Represented the Woman's Auxiliary in every facet of work nationally through:
 - Speaking engagements
 - Workshops
 - Editing and distributing promotional materials
 - Serving as co-hostess of the Pentecostal Fellowship of America

Not only has Mrs. Russell been actively involved in the work of the Woman's Auxiliary but she has served as Associate Pastor to her husband through the years and has pastored two churches since his death, The Tabernacle, and Pikes Crossroads. She was also an instrument by the side of her husband as they established a new work in the earlier years of their ministry, The Peniel Pentecostal Holiness Church. In her busy schedule she made time to be a wife and mother of four lovely daughters and one son who followed in his father's and mother's steps in the ministry.

Mrs. Russell, we honor you today for that you have allowed God to do through your life for the upbuilding of His Kingdom and we know that as you leave this phase of your ministry that you will begin a new phase that will continue to contribute to the work of God and the Pentecostal Holiness Church.

—J. Doner Lee, June 14, 1982
